

Voting on Plans of Truman

Senate Upholds One To Reorganize The U.S. Commerce Department

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—The Senate today upheld the last three plans of President Truman's 21-plan government reorganization program.

These plans, together with three previously approved and 10 which were not in dispute in the Senate, will become effective tomorrow. Today was the deadline for action.

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—The Senate today upheld President Truman's plan for the reorganization of the commerce department.

A vote of 43 to 29 defeated a resolution by Senator Wiley (R-Wis.), to kill the plan.

A 43 to 29 vote also rejected a resolution to disapprove a plan for shifting certain planning functions from the general services administration to the housing and home finance agency.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.), who offered the resolution, contended the plan was aimed at turning 380 temporary federal jobs into permanent jobs.

The Senate is up against a mid-night deadline for action on the 21 plans that President Truman sent to Capitol Hill last March 13.

The law provides that a reorganization plan submitted by the president shall become a law after 60 days, unless specifically disapproved by either house. A House recess for Easter extended the deadline in the present instance until tonight.

Mr. Truman submitted the 21 plans in the aftermath of a long study by a bi-partisan commission headed by former President Hoover. Opponents of some of the Truman plans said they went beyond the Hoover recommendations. A citizens committee backing the Hoover reorganization idea endorsed 20 of the 21, taking no stand on one to reorganize the National Labor Relations Board. This plan has been rejected.

Follow New Trend
Forty-nine votes are required in the Senate to adopt a resolution of disapproval which kills a plan. The first five plans to come before the Senate were killed off in the space of two weeks. Then, in an about fact, Senators last Friday endorsed the plan to abolish the Independent Maritime Commission.

They followed the new trend yesterday by endorsing, in effect, plans for the Federal Trade and Power Commissions.

Thirty-four Senators voted for the FTC disapproval resolution and 38 against. Thirty-seven voted to disapprove the FPC plan—12 short of the necessary 49—and 38 against.

The House has rejected none of the 21 plans.

Others for Test
The other two plans facing tests would:

1. Transfer from the general services administration (GSA) to the Housing and Home Finance Agency the administration of (A) federal grants to state and local governments for advance planning and (B) certain federally built wartime community facilities.

Senator Aiken (R-Vt.), told the Senate Expenditures committee that the plan was designed solely to provide permanent employment for 380 temporary employees of GSA who otherwise will be out of a job when the advanced planning project ends in October, 1951.

2. Transfer to the GSA certain custodial and maintenance operations now conducted by other federal agencies.

Regardless of the outcome of today's voting, 10 plans will automatically become effective tomorrow together with those for the Maritime, Trade and Power commissions. The 10 would:

Reorganize the Justice, Interior and Labor Department; the Civil Aeronautics Board; the Securities and Exchange Commission; vest labor standards enforcement in the Labor Department; shift public works in Alaska to the Interior Department; transfer school aids to the Federal Security Agency; shift the Bureau of Employment Compensation to the Labor Department; and shift record-keeping to GSA.

The five plans killed by the Senate would have abolished the office of General Counsel for the National Labor Relations Board and reorganized the Treasury and Agriculture Departments and the Interstate Commerce and Federal Communications Commissions.

Banquet Given Charter Night For Jaycees

Floyd Stewart in Address at the Hotel Bothwell

One of Sedalia's biggest banquets of the year, full of gaiety and importance, which officially marked the beginning of the Sedalia Junior Chamber of Commerce in Sedalia, was held Monday night in the Ambassador Room of the Bothwell hotel, with 130 people in attendance. All of whom seemed to have enjoyed themselves from the time the banquet started, until the farewell note was sounded.

Attending the Charter Presentation Banquet, were national and state officers of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, civic leaders of Sedalia, charter members of the new organization, their wives and invited guests, and a group of Fulton Jaycees members.

Floyd Stewart Speaker

The feature of the evening was when Floyd Stewart, of Monett, Mo., who is the National Vice-President, presented "Bob" Wall, president of the Sedalia Jaycees, with charter number 2855, which signified the newly formed organization as a member of the national and state Junior Chamber of Commerce. The new Sedalia president was also presented with a pal button, marking him the official president of the Sedalia Jaycees. After the brief ceremony, Wall said he was greatly honored to be the president of the organization, and said the Jaycees will strive always to keep Sedalia in mind.

Prior to the two presentations, Stewart delivered the principal talk of the evening. In his remarks, he said the Junior Chamber of Commerce was the greatest young organization in the world. Stewart said he joined the Jaycees for two reasons. The first, he asserted was for purely selfish reason, in that he wanted to share the good times other young men had in the organization, and also to raise his standing in the community in which he lived.

The second reason for joining the organization, he said, was he wanted to make his hometown "a little bit better to live in." "I think that is the spot that hit all of us," he asserted. "We have something in this organization which appeals to every young man between the ages of 21 and 35."

King Opposes Marriage Of Princess to Commoner

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23—(AP)—An Egyptian princess and her commoner husband, summoned to Cairo by King Farouk, start their homeward journey today while another princess and commoner plan a marriage which Farouk opposes.

Princess Faika, sister of the king, and her bridegroom, Fouad Sadek, planned an afternoon plane departure, confident their wedding would be given Farouk's blessing—and the bridegroom a new diplomatic office—when they reach Egypt. Both are Moslems. But there appeared to be no such hope for Riad Ghali, 31, a Coptic Christian, as he and Princess

Agree on a New Contract And Pensions

Auto Workers Reach it With General Motors

DETROIT, May 23—(AP)—General Motors Corporation and the CIO United Auto Workers announced today negotiators have reached agreement on a new contract for the union's 260,000 GM workers.

The new contract will run for an unprecedented five years.

It provides $100 monthly pensions, including federal Social Security benefits, and pensions will increase if Congress likes government benefits to those 65 years of age or more.

GM Vice President Harry Anderson said the agreement was "historical in labor-management relations." Walter Reuther, UAW-CIO president, called it "the most significant and constructive step taken in any mass production industry since the founding of the CIO."

CAA Inspectors Be Here a Day

They will also hold an open meeting at the Central Business College that night, starting at 8:00 o'clock.

The subject will be "Safety Flying." Movies will also be shown. All persons interested in aviation are invited to attend.

For further information concerning the meeting, contact Jack Funk at the local airport.

Big Power Lines To be Connected

KANSAS CITY, May 23—(AP)—The Kansas City Power & Light Co. and the Union Electric Co., St. Louis, will connect their systems through a 180-mile transmission line at a cost of $4,000,000.

Acting jointly, the companies will build the line as a main trunk of a statewide power grid system, H. B. Munsell, president of the Kansas City firm, said last night.

He said work will begin as soon as the state public service commission approves the project. The work will take one to two years.

Munsell said one of the main advantages will be a supply of power in case of an emergency on one of the systems.

Union Electric will build a line to link Moberly with its St. Louis and Lake of the Ozarks lines. The Kansas City company will tap that new line with one built eastward to near Salisbury.

House Passes Three Billion Aid Measure

Goes to Senate Where Action is Expected Quickly

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—House passage sent to the Senate today a compromise bill authorizing a $3,120,550,000 program of economic aid to Europe and other non-Communist areas.

Prompt Senate action was expected. The House approved it by a vote of 247 to 88.

The legislation authorizes a third year of operation of the four year Marshall plan for European recovery. A separate bill providing the actual cash to finance the program is being prepared by the House appropriations committee.

The compromise representing adjustment of varying bills previously passed by the Senate and House, calls for $245,000,000 less than President Truman had requested. It provides:

$2,849,100,000 for European Recovery assistance; $109,000,000 for aid to South Korea; $94,000,000 for non-Communist forces in the Chinese area; $27,450,000 for assistance to Palestine refugees; $15,000,000 for the international children's emergency fund and $33,900,000 for the administration of giving technical and other aid to undeveloped areas of the world.

Talk to Club on State College

The Sedalia Optimist club held its regular weekly luncheon meeting today at the Bothwell hotel with President G. Patrick Darnell presiding.

The guest speaker, introduced by E. W. Goetz, program chairman, was Dr. William F. Knox, of Central Missouri State college at Warrensburg. His subject was "A Thumbail Sketch of CMSC."

Dr. Knox told of the important part Sedalia and Pettis county play in the operation of the college. Pettis county supplying approximately 87% of the total enrollment, which stood at 1452 at the beginning of the Spring term, and runs considerably higher for the fall and winter terms. The speaker stated that the college started as a normal school in 1871 and became an official State Teachers college in 1919, serving 21 counties designated by the legislature. The word "Teachers" was dropped from the official title in 1947.

"Many Sedalia professional men did their basic work at Warrensburg," Dr. Knox said, going on to point out that the broad curriculum at CMSC covered pre-professional work in many fields. He spoke at length of the new building at the college and referred to them as "the result of a 'good five'" which swept the campus in 1915.

"The college still considers its first responsibility to be the preparation of teachers," the speaker said, although pre-professional work and four recently added business majors are very popular.

Carl Ballinger reported briefly on construction progress at the Jr. Optimist Club Campsite east of Sedalia. President Darnell announced that the first monthly presentation of new members would be held on June 6, with Lee Dawson officiating.

Dr. H. O. Wilbur led the singing in the absence of Charles Hanna.

Choral Club Concert Tonight

The thirty-seven voice Sedalia Men's Choral club will present its third annual free Spring Concert in the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium tonight at 8:15 o'clock, with Abe Rosenthal conducting and Miss Lillian Fox as accompanist.

The auditorium is expected to be filled to capacity according to the club's publicity department. There have been dozens of letters from surrounding towns requesting information about the concert and the attendance from Sedalia's surrounding communities will be large.

The program, for the most part, is entirely new and it is so compiled that it should appeal to all ages and tastes of choral singing.

Votes For Navy Modernization

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—The House today voted for a $350,000,000 Navy modernization program.

It calls for construction of 50,000 tons of new vessels, including an atomic-powered submarine and a guided missile ship, and for conversion of up to 200,000 tons of existing vessels.

There was no opposition.

Day of Prayer Memorial Day

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—President Truman asked the American people today to observe Memorial day "as a day of prayer for permanent peace."

In a proclamation, he designated the hour beginning at 9 a. m. (CST) Tuesday, May 30, "as a period in which all our people may unite in prayer, each in accordance with his own religious faith, for divine aid in bringing enduring peace to a troubled world."

The President acted under a congressional resolution which called for Memorial day to be observed both by tributes to the heroic dead and by nation-wide prayer for peace.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) and Rep. Michener (R-Mich) sponsored the resolution, picking up a suggestion from Carl M. Saunders, editor of the Jackson (Mich) Citizen Patriot.

Saunders received a Pulitzer prize for an editorial urging designation of Memorial day to pray for peace.

Delay Decision On Congress

Some Anxious to Adjourn to Get in Their Campaigns

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—Administration leaders today put off until next week a decision on when to seek an adjournment of Congress.

Senate majority leader Lucas (Ill.) told reporters after a White House conference that President Truman will discuss administration legislative goals with his congressional leaders next week.

The question of how soon Congress might quit to give its members an early start on re-election campaigns had been slated for discussion today when Lucas, Vice President Barkley and House majority leader McCormack of Massachusetts called at the White House.

They had planned to talk over with Mr. Truman how much of his "For Deal" program he is willing to delay until the 82nd Congress.

Strong pressure was building up among Senators and Representatives who have re-election campaigns to cut short the working day and get Congress out of town by August 1.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, has a hot campaign on his hands. He told reporters he would like to get going early. Lucas plans to take five days off beginning Thursday for a series of speeches in Illinois, where he is opposed by former Rep. Everett Dirksen, Republican.

Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP policy committee, said he doesn't see any reason why Congress shouldn't shoot for a July 15 adjournment. Taft also has a tough campaign ahead.

Senator Wheeler of Nebraska, the GOP floor leader, said that Congress ought to pass finally on social security expansion, tax reduction, the one-package appropriation bill and possibly the foreign arms program—and then fold up.

Acheson to Give Secret Report

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson will give Congress a secret report next week on the work of the Atlantic Pact conference in London.

Senate Democratic leader Lucas, announcing this today, said the entire membership of both Houses will be invited to hear Acheson at a closed meeting May 31, in the auditorium of the library of Congress.

Lucas made the announcement after a White House conference of congressional leaders with President Truman.

Wife Threatened to Leave And is Slain

SEMINOLE, Okla., May 23—(AP)—Mrs. Faye Barbaree, 49, was found beaten and slashed to death in a wooded grove near here and her husband gave a signed statement today that he killed his wife when she threatened to leave him.

Seminole County Attorney Jack Scott said Bob Barbaree, 56-year-old barber, was arrested by Sheriff John Sandlin and Deputy Price Axlin last night after a scuffle at his home.

He admitted killing his wife, Scott said, and led officers to a grove of trees at the Chester Gates farm three miles west and one-quarter mile south of here, where he had hidden the body.

She was clad in a night gown and wrapped in a bed spread.

Appeal to Register With Red Cross as Blood Donors

People in Sedalia do not always appreciate the advantages they have here. They just take things for granted and sometimes fuss when they do not get the things they are accustomed to here but would not have if they lived in some other town.

One of these things that they would pay for in other cities and towns is blood that people receive here when it is needed, thus the free blood made possible by the work of the Pettis Chapter of the American Red Cross and willing blood donors who have registered with that organization to answer the calls when needed. In most cities and towns a pint of blood costs $25.00, for two pints of blood must be given by relatives or friends in order to get one pint for someone who needs it.

Claims 'Fear of Ghosts Destroying Us'

BOSTON, May 23—(AP)—The 43rd annual meeting of the Northern Baptist convention was warned tonight against "destroying freedom x x x in an effort to silence disturbers of the peace."

The warning was given by the Rev. Dr. Theron Chastain of Phoenix, Ariz., keynote speaker at the opening communion service of the meeting.

Some 2,500 delegates, representing 2,000,000 Baptists in 36 northern states and Puerto Rico, attended the service in Mechanics building.

"The fear of ghosts is destroying us," declared Dr. Chastain. "The Russians see all kinds of fearful ghosts when they look across at us and we see ghosts behind the Iron Curtain."

"In our mad witch hunt for Communists let us beware that we do not destroy our own freedoms and crucify Christ in our effort to silence any who would disturb the peace."

Annual MPBC Frolic To Be Held Friday

Closes Club Indoor Activities; Outdoor Activities In July

The annual spring frolic sponsored by the Missouri Pacific Boosters club will be held Friday night in Convention Hall starting at 8 o'clock and the public is invited to attend this program which will be followed by a square and round dance.

Charles Keller, chairman of the entertainment committee has arranged some of the finest singers and entertainers in Central Missouri. "Boss" Ellis and his string band will provide the dance music as well as some specialties for the entertainment.

The program will consist of some of the old folk songs as well as some of the latest numbers. Among those who will appear are Ernest Mulberry and the Vaughn sisters as well as a number of others.

Plan Outdoor Programs
This is an annual Booster affair which will close the activities for the Boosters until the outdoor season opens which will start about July 1st. They plan to hold several outdoor programs in the bandstand at the park as they did several years ago.

E. G. Rose, Chief Booster, is looking forward to a large crowd for the spring festival.

Appeal to Register With Red Cross as Blood Donors

Cross there was about 10 pints of blood a month needed and the 200 registered as blood donors was sufficient, but the call for blood has increased until it is now 40 pints a month. The increase makes it a necessity that more people register so that when their blood is needed to save a life they may be called upon.

Too many people overlook the fact that such an organization might affect them. No one knows at what moment, through illness, blood donors who have registered or members of their family may need blood. That is why it is so necessary for everyone who is able to give aid of age to give should register with the Red Cross as blood donors. It is to the interest of all people in Sedalia and Pettis county to give that they may receive that vital thing to life, blood, the right type, at the right moment and enough of it.

Protests Made by U. S., Britain And France as to the Russian Units

By John Scali

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—The United States, Britain and France accused Russia today of creating a 50,000-man German military force and called on the Soviets to disband it.

The three Western powers sent separate protests to Moscow saying Russia had broken its postwar pledges by establishing a police force in Eastern Germany with—as the American note phrased it—"the character of an army."

The United States note called on Russia to prove its "peace intentions" by dissolving the "militarized units" immediately.

In making it public, the State Department said British and French notes took the same general line.

Expressing "grave concern" at Russia's action, the American note said the Soviets had "destroyed world confidence in the sincerity" of their repeated protestations of peaceful intentions.

It cited five specific Soviet written agreements against militarizing Germany, including the promises made at Yalta February 11, 1945.

Decision By Ministers
The three-power decision to send protests to Moscow was reached at the London conference of the Big Three foreign ministers—Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Minister Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman.

The notes went to Moscow at a time when a week-end of possible crisis in East-West relations in Germany is approaching.

Communist youths from the Soviet zone have laid plans for a march and demonstration in Berlin next Sunday. West Berlin's Mayor Ernest Reuter has warned Russia his sector will "defend its freedom" against any effort to "suddenly overrun free Berlin."

Secretary Acheson is to give Congress a report next week on the discussions that led to the decision to send the notes.

It was announced that members of Congress, with all others barred, will hear the Secretary of State at a meeting in the Library of Congress on Wednesday of next week.

The United States note said of the German force:

"It is not an ordinary police force, and it does not have ordinary police duties."

"It receives basic infantry, artillery, and armored training, and is equipped with military weapons including machine guns, howitzers, anti-aircraft cannon, mortars, and tanks."

"It must be regarded, therefore as a military force."

The American note also said that by creating the force Russia has "destroyed world confidence in the sincerity of its promises" and aroused world-wide doubt "as to its peaceful intentions."

The note went on to say that if Russia wants to restore some measure of confidence in its assertions of peaceful intentions, "it cannot fail to dissolve immediately the militarized unit which it has set up in Eastern Germany."

Training Personnel
In releasing the note, the State Department made available to reporters additional data on the East German police force. This said the force was created in August, 1949, under General Inspektor Wilhelm Zeisler.

It said this "military force" was made up of 39 berichschaften (alert units) to train enlisted personnel and at least 11 officer training schools.

"The force is armed with standard German infantry weapons, but its military capabilities are at present negligible," the memorandum said.

"However, in the future it could form the nucleus of a new German army or an internal security force to maintain Communist control."

These statements also were made:

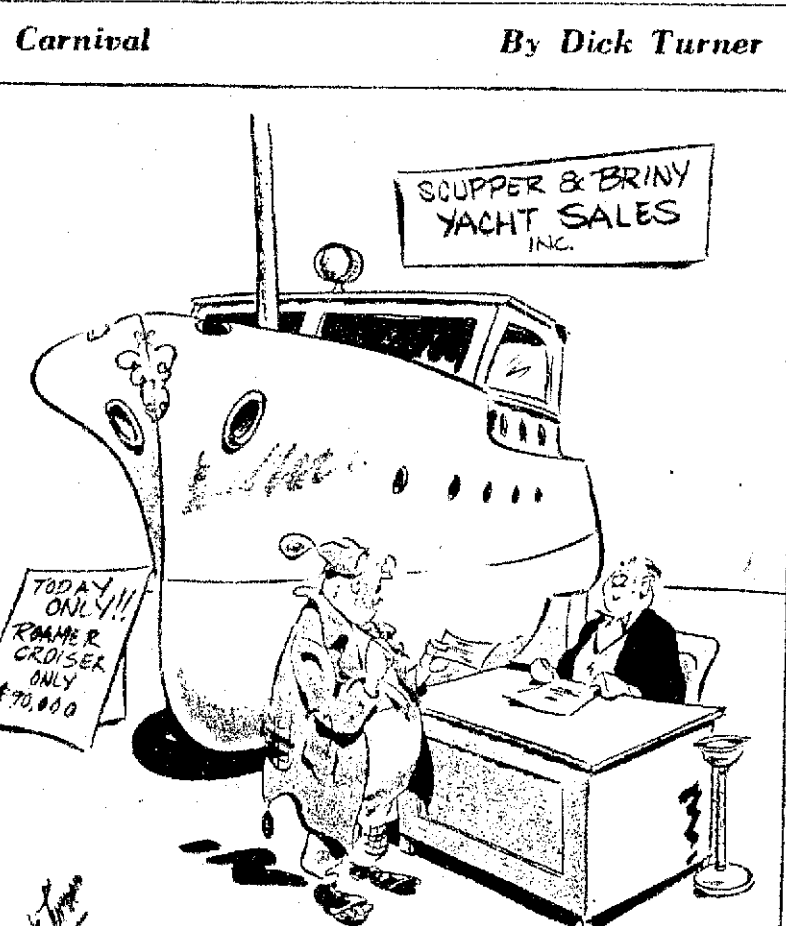

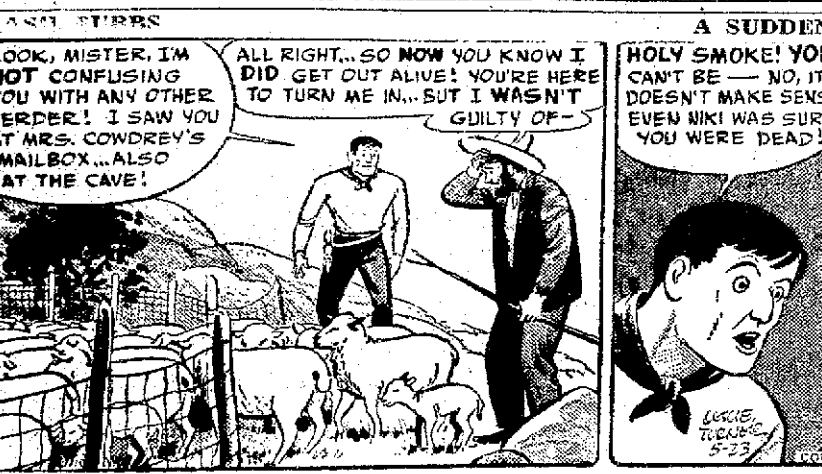

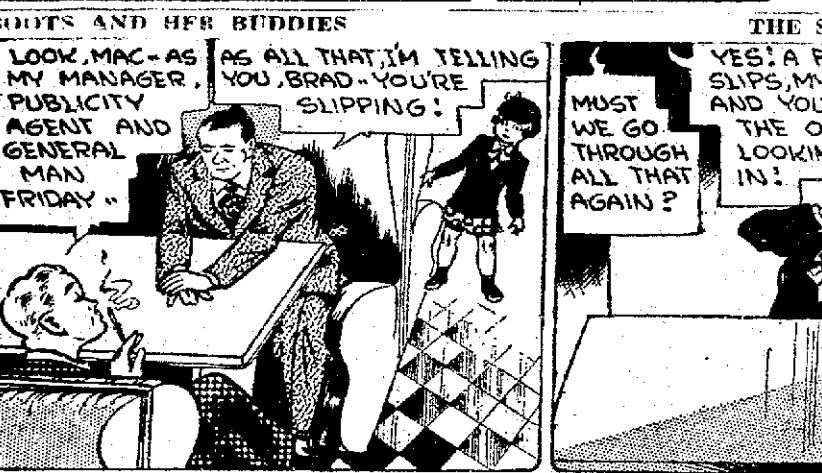

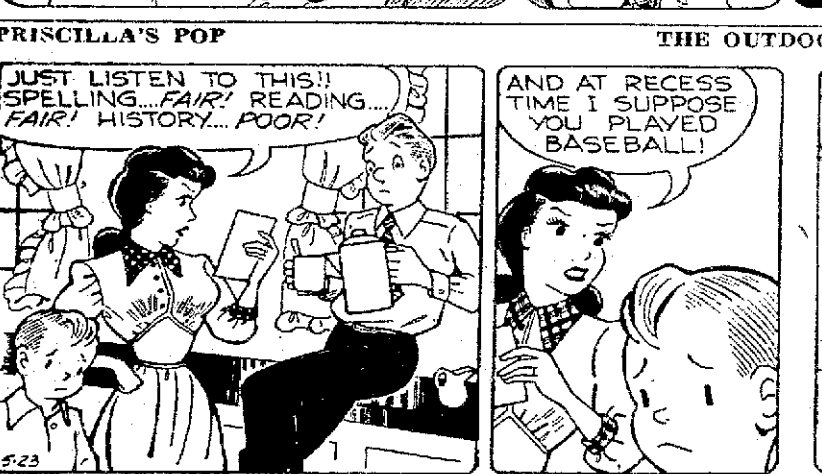

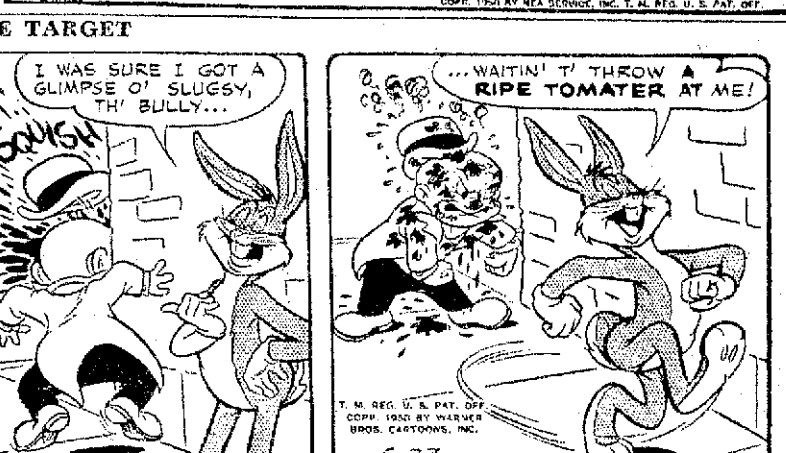

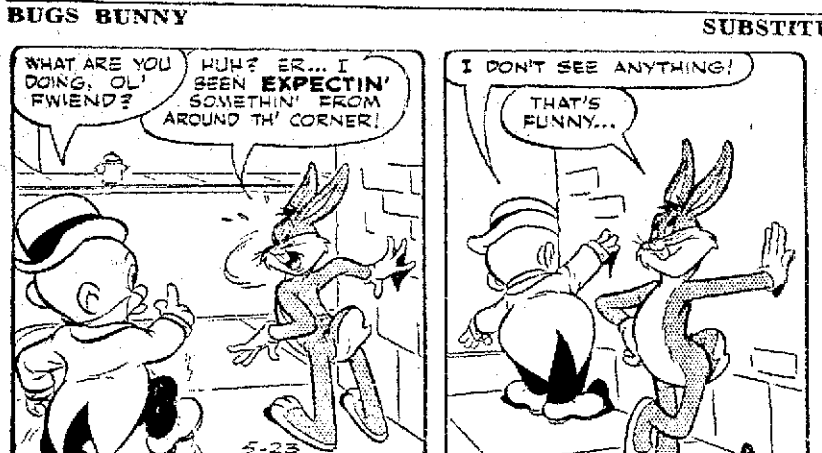

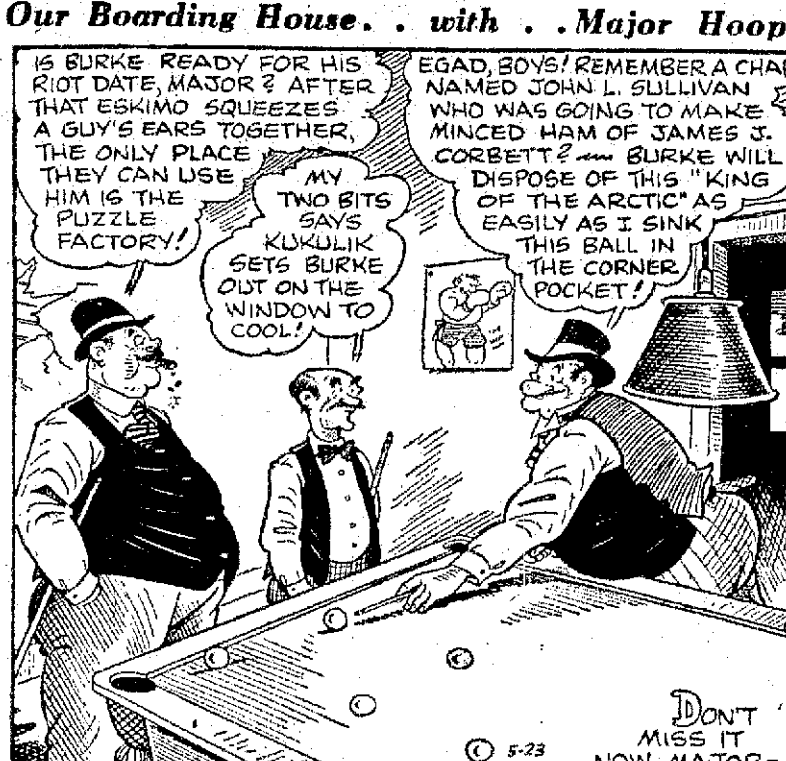

There is a direct chain of command from General Zeisler to General-Major Petrakovsky of the Soviet control commission in Germany.

Russian supervision of the units is carried out by assigning a Russian field officer to each berichschaft and officer's school. These Russian officers are called "Sovietniks" by the Germans and wear standard German police uniforms.

50th Annual Track Meet This Weekend

Jessie Owens Heads List of All-Stars As Honored Guests

By Jerry Liska

CHICAGO, May 23—(AP)—The 50th Big Ten outdoor track meet at Evanston, Ill., this week-end, shaping up as one of the hottest feuds in conference history, will be further spiced by a salute to a half-century all-star squad picked today.

To signalize the 50-year milestone in conference track competition, a 13-man squad of all-time greats was selected by league track coaches and Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson.

Heading the list is Jesse Owens, jet-propelled destroyer of records for Ohio State in the mid-thirties. Owens was named the world's track athlete of the half-century in an Associated Press poll.

The mythical squad, still owning an aggregate of 36 major track and field records, was culled from more than 6,250 athletes who cavorted in Big Ten title meets since the turn of the century.

Blues Bow to Louisville 4-3

By The Associated Press

Adrian Zabala, slim 33-year-old Cuban southpaw who notched 2-3 for the New York Giants last year, topped a string of fine pitching performances in the American Association Monday night.

Zabala hurled a two-hit night-cap shutout as Minneapolis defeated last place Toledo after beating the Brood 3-2 in the seventh inning opener.

At Milwaukee, league-leading Indianapolis extended its winning streak through six games with a 6-3 job over the Brewers.

Kansas City bowed to Louisville 4-3 as Duane Pilette, shipped down from the New York Yankees, lost his first start. He gave up only four hits, including Ken Chapman's homer in the fourth. Hank Workman slammed a four-bagger for the Blues.

Bill Nixon was the winner, scattering seven hits and fanning 11. Another hand-drawn hurler, Clem Labine from Brooklyn, lost his St. Paul debut as a starter. He was powdered for five runs in the first inning and Columbus won the seven-inning opener 7-3 behind Cotton Deal's two hitter.

Phil Haugstad held the Redbirds to three hits and St. Paul took the closer 3-1. Gene Major, the loser went the route and gave up only four hits.

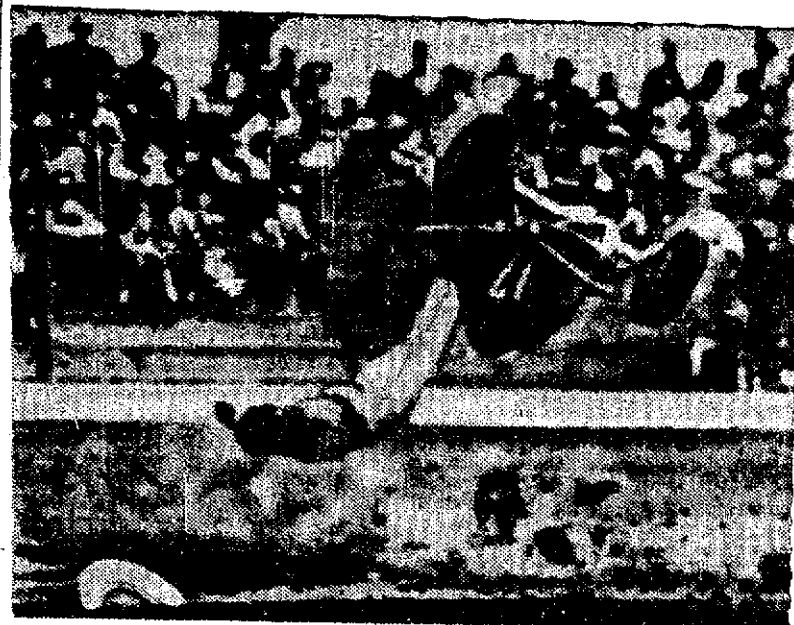

Ben Hogan in Tuneup Round

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 23—(AP)—The 36-man field for the $15,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament will be completed today. And the first news to hit the stars of the links tour as they come to town is that Ben Hogan still knows every blade of grass on tough Colonial country club course.

It hasn't been called "Hogan's alley" for nothing—the Mighty Mite has won two of the three Colonial tournaments held to date and tied for second in the other. He also holds the competitive record of 65 for the 7,035-yard course. Yesterday Hogan, who had been ailing for a week from influenza, laid down a one-under-par 69, shooting 17 pars and a birdie on No. 17 where he rammed down a 12-foot putt.

Dodgers Move to Full Game Lead

By JOE REICHER Associated Press Sports Writer

If Hal Newhouse and Don Newcombe have sore shoulders, there are a flock of strong-armed healthy looking hurlers who would like to have some of the same.

Nothing appeared to be wrong with either of the pitching aces yesterday as each turned in a fine performance in a winning effort.

Newhouse, the veteran Detroit southpaw, stopped the surprisingly potent Washington Senators with eight hits in pitching the Tigers to a 5-1 triumph. Newcombe gave a similar eight-hit exhibition against the Cincinnati Reds as the Brooklyn Dodgers won by the identical 5-1 score.

Both hurlers were plagued by ailing arms all spring. Each traced his misfortune to an aching shoulder muscle.

The victory increased the Dodgers' first place lead over Philadelphia in the National League pennant race to a full game. The Phils were one of the six clubs in the loop to enjoy an off day.

Vic Raschi of the New York Yankees, pitched a strong game in subduing the Cleveland Indians, 7-2. Raschi, who missed his last turn because of an elbow injury, allowed the Indians only five hits in registering his fourth triumph against two losses.

The victory enabled the front running Yankees to retain their two and a half game lead over Detroit in the American League race. Vern Stephens rapped two home runs for Boston but it was not enough to stop the Chicago White Sox from defeating the Red Sox, 10-9, in 10 innings.

Philadelphia's Athletics and St. Louis' Browns were idle.

Top Bowlers Unable To Change ABC Score

COLUMBUS, O., May 23—(AP)—Some of the nation's top bowlers threw them down the alleys of the American Bowling Congress tournament yesterday—but the day ended without a change in the top 10 of the various divisions.

Two of these top legklers—Ned Day and Buddy Bomar of the Chicago Tavern Pale Stars, have won national match game championships. But they fell short of anything spectacular in singles and doubles.

With the tournament's largest week-day audience on hand to watch, Day opened his singles with a 270 (10 strikes, two spares). Then he lost his touch and ended up with 175 and 200 for 645.

Bomar had 593 in singles. Day and Bomar's doubles score was 1243.

Newhauser Returns to Mound Duty

But Now Another Detroit Hurler Has Sore Arm

By Charles C. Cain

DETROIT, May 23—(AP)—"Hal Newhauser has got it again." That was the word passed around in American League circles today after the lean Detroit Tiger southpaw tossed an eight hitter against the Washington Senators to beat them 5-1 yesterday.

The hitherto ailing Newhauser looked mighty impressive as he went the distance against the surprisingly potent Washington club. The good news for Detroit was marred, however, by setback elsewhere. Fireballer Virgil Trucks came up with a sore arm. He faces an indefinite layoff.

No Signs of Injury
Newhauser showed no signs of the shoulder injury that cropped up during spring training and sidelined him for nearly a full month of the league race.

It was only his second pitching appearance of the season, and he looked far different from the fellow who lasted only three innings while taking a 7-3 beating from the St. Louis Browns on May 14. In both cases Hal ran into his major trouble in the first inning when a walk and a hit batter helped load the bases.

In the St. Louis game Roy Sievers hit a grand slam homer to start Newhauser to an early shower.

Yesterday Hal struck out Roberto Ortiz for the final out of the initial inning to escape un-

Smathers Terms Self Pro-Truman

WASHINGTON, May 23—(AP)—Rep. Smathers (D-Fla.) described himself today as a "pro-Truman Democrat" after a call on President Truman.

It was his first White House visit since he won the Democratic senatorial nomination from Senator Pepper.

Smathers told reporters after his visit with Mr. Truman: "I just went in to pay my respects. I haven't seen the President in along time."

He was asked if he considered himself an "Anti-Truman Democrat."

"No," he said. "I don't consider myself an anti-Truman Democrat. I campaigned as a liberal Democrat. I consider myself a pro-Truman Democrat."

In his campaign against Pepper, Smathers differed with the President on civil rights and other issues.

Advised to Ignore The 'Red Dean'

AUCKLAND, N.Z., May 23—(AP)

The head of the Church of England has advised Anglican churches throughout the world to ignore the visits of the "Red Dean" of Canterbury, Dr. Hewlett Johnson.

Mayor John C. Allum said today he wrote recently to Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury, asking him to define the position of the Church of England toward the Dean of Canterbury so the city authorities would know how the church stood with regard to any visit Dr. Johnson might make here.

"My advice to Anglican churches overseas," the archbishop replied, "is they should completely ignore a visit of Dean Canterbury."

"It is unfortunately true that Dean Canterbury so conducts himself as to create embarrassment and difficulty wherever he goes, not as Dean Canterbury or as an Ecclesiastic, but purely as an individual who desires to declare his belief on certain political matters. There is no obligation on civic authorities to take any notice of him. He is completely unrepresentative of the Church of England and this country."

Parents of a Murdered Girl Attack Youth

Girl Murdered in a Robbery Attempt by Nineteen-Year-Old

CHICAGO, May 23 — (AP) — A girl knife victim's parents Monday attacked the man accused of killing her.

The struggle marked the opening of an inquest in the Cook county morgue into the death of Patricia Swartz, 16-year-old brunette high school girl, early Saturday morning at the back door of her home.

Raymond Jenko, 19, who lives three blocks from the south side Swartz home, was spun around and knocked to the floor as he entered the inquest room.

William Swartz, 40, father of the dead girl, hit Jenko with his fist, then gripped his neck. The girl's mother, Florence, 39, struck Jenko with her fist and kicked him. A policeman to whom Jenko was handcuffed, was borne down with the father's attack. Other officers stopped the struggle.

Mrs. Swartz panted "I'm sorry we didn't get him. I'd like to cut his throat from cheek to cheek."

Verdict of Murder
Later, when the coroner's jury returned a verdict of murder and recommended that Jenko be held to the grand jury, Mrs. Swartz comforted his mother, Mrs. Ruby Jenko, 53.

"Oh, I'm sorry for you," Mrs. Swartz said. "You're more to be pitied than I. At least, my little girl is in heaven."

Mrs. Swartz collapsed on the witness stand after telling how she held the bleeding girl in her arms on the back yard walk.

Chief of Detectives Andrew Aitken said Jenko signed a 53-page statement that he stabbed Patricia with a butcher knife in a robbery attempt. The body of the victim bore 12 knife cuts.

Youth Refused To Testify
At the inquest, Jenko refused to testify. During the proceeding, he sat most of the time with his face in his hands.

Mrs. Jenko told reporters that Raymond was "mean" sometimes, and that she had been worried about his sullenness.

He is on probation for burglary. The slaying victim, a high school junior, was waylaid while returning home from a volleyball game at her church.

M. F. A. Oil Company Agents In Meeting

A meeting of the managers and agents of the M. F. A. in this district was held Monday night at 8:30 at Dan's Pioneer room above Dan's restaurant, 121 South Ohio avenue, by the M. F. A. Oil Company.

The purpose of the meeting was to bring the agents up to date on the latest methods of using insecticides and weed and plant killers.

The meeting was the fifth in a series which is being presented over the state and was under the charge of C. F. Robertson assistant manager of the M. F. A. Oil Company.

The company displayed a stand of the different sprays and killers used in the M. F. A. exchanges and the ways of using these sprays was explained by Stewart Spraling a research chemist of the company. Other speakers were: Gene McKay, fieldman, who explained weed and brush killers and Roy Barnes, fieldman, who talked on spraying equipment.

After the speakers' explanations a picture was shown on the same subjects.

Fifty-five agents and managers attended the meeting-dinner.

Chicagoan Shoots Wife, Kills Himself

CHICAGO, May 23 — (AP) — Twelve year old Marcella Holder told a coroner's jury Monday her father grabbed a shotgun and fired one shot at her mother when she tried to flee during a family quarrel yesterday.

Police said the father, William Lloyd Holder, 35, formerly of Walnut Ridge, Ark., shot himself after wounding his wife, Reva, 32. Holder was killed and his wife is hospitalized with a fractured leg as a result of the shooting in her apartment.

Marcella, one of the Holder's four children, said her parents were arguing and that her father accused her mother of going out with other men.

Marcella said her father had not been living at home. She was the only one of the four children present during the shooting.

Police said two blood-stained notes were found in the Holder's pockets. One, addressed to the

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Herbert Hoover is Hurt By The Conservative Republican 'Pressure Groups'

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON.—Herbert Hoover is angry and hurt the way Republican Senators deserted him on his great engineering plan for government, the Hoover report.

In private talks with Washington friends and in a talk before the Sales Executives club in New York, the ex-president complained bitterly about the "pressure groups, paid propagandists, and organized minorities" which killed his reorganization plans in the Senate.

It is the conservative GOP Senators who have long held up Herbert Hoover as their symbol of government efficiency. It is also the GOP Senate conservatives who have repeatedly preached government economy. Yet when Hoover worked out a plan to save the government several billions, and President Truman urged its adoption by Congress, it was these same GOP Senators who thwarted their ex-leader. On the other hand, liberal Republicans voted with him.

This is the record on the four Hoover plans now stopped by the Senate:

PLAN NO. 1.—Transfer functions of the comptroller of the currency to the Secretary of the Treasury. Opposed by the American Bankers Association and every GOP Senator except three—Aiken, VT.; Lodge, Mass.; and Williams, Del. The GOP leadership, Robert Taft, Gen. Wherry, and Gene Millikin, all voted against Hoover.

PLAN NO. 12.—Abolish the general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board. Fought by Senator Taft (though he was for it a year before) the National Association of Manufacturers, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Only five Republicans voted with Hoover: Aiken and Lodge, Ives, N.Y., Langer, N.D., and Tobey, N.H.

PLAN NO. 7.—Give executive powers to the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Bitterly opposed by the Association of American Railroads and the Railway Labor Executives Association. Only two Republicans, Knowland of California and Williams of Delaware, favored it.

PLAN NO. 11.—Give the Federal Communications Commission chairman executive authority. Fought by National Association of Broadcasters and American Bar Association. Only eight Republicans voted with Hoover: Aiken, Ives, Knowland, Langer, Lodge, Smith of N.J., Thye of Minn., and Tobey.

Hoover Explains

Explaining his defeat to the Sales Executives club, Hoover said: "All the pressure groups have got in their work on the reform that would affect them, while they proclaim their endorsement of all the other reforms. I promise you that, before we fail, I shall name by name and describe them (the vested interests) by the use of all the English language of which I am capable."

NOTE: One outfit that has done a bang-up job for the Hoover report is the lively Junior Chamber of Commerce. Clifford D. Cooper, the national president, has visited every state, organizing grass-roots pressure for government reform.

Balloons to Russia

Theodore H. Sloan of Washington, Pa., who was chief development engineer for the Council of Defense during World War I, has written me a letter about his experiences in floating small balloons into hostile territory—such as Russia.

Mr. Sloan worked out a plan in 1917 for floating balloons into Germany carrying fire bombs to set fire to German forests. Eventually, Woodrow Wilson stopped the plan as inhuman. "The balloon was about 60 inches in diameter, carrying an automatic ballast tank and release mechanism for the fire bomb," wrote Mr. Sloan. "The balloon would rise to about 60,000 feet, at which point the ballast held it at about this altitude, the prevailing wind causing it to travel easterly at about 100 miles an hour.

"A large number of these mechanisms were built and tested. On one test, 80 were sent up from Nebraska and dummy bombs were dropped along the Atlantic coast. We had attached a notice of a reward for each dummy bomb returned, and by this means got about 60 per cent back.

"The whole outfit," continued Mr. Sloan, "can be built for about $2 each and will carry about 10 ounces of dead weight. It has the following advantages:

"1. It is the cheapest method of transporting printed material into an enemy country.
 "2. Human life is not jeopardized.
 "3. The balloons are practically invisible at 60,000 feet; therefore, cannot be shot down."

NOTE—Many patriotic Americans have written this columnist offering to help get propaganda balloons into Russia.

Beats John L. Lewis

It was crowded out of the news by the downfall of Pennsylvania's Grundy machine, but John L. Lewis and his strong-arm men also went down to defeat in the Pennsylvania primaries.

Lewis was determined to defeat Democratic Congressman Anthony Cavalcante, a former coal miner and an attorney for the miners local in Uniontown, Pa., because Cavalcante wouldn't take orders as a Congressman. And when Cavalcante seemed to be making headway, his opponents tried to break up a rally with their fists. Cavalcante was staging a meeting at Windber, Pa., when his primary foe, Ed Dumbald, a Uniontown attorney, barged in, flanked by half a dozen strapping Lewis lieutenants, who loudly demanded that Dumbald be allowed to speak. Shouting above the uproar, Cavalcante said: "Let him speak if he's got something to say. It's a Democratic country and this is a Democratic meeting."

Anthony Rulli, a local Democratic leader who presided at the rally, also raised no objections, but insisted that Dumbald and his rowdy companions leave immediately after he had had his say. Whereupon, one of the Lewis goons swung on Rulli and broke his nose.

While Rulli was being taken to a hospital, Dumbald delivered a brief harangue. Then the intruders were booted out of the meeting hall by 400 Cavalcante followers, most of them members of Lewis's mine union and local mill workers.

Final result: Cavalcante won by twice as many votes.

Friends See ECA's Hoffman As Good Presidential Timber

By Peter Edson

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—(NEA)—The name of Paul Gray Hoffman, Marshall Plan administrator, has been indirectly tossed into the ring as a presidential possibility. Mr. Hoffman immediately ducked.

The tosser was no less a person than Thomas B. McCabe, chairman of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The occasion was a semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Committee for Economic Development, private business research organization. CED was founded during the war and Paul Hoffman, then president of Studebaker Corporation, was its first president.

Quoting an unnamed senator, Chairman McCabe said, "There is no man I'd rather see in the highest office of the land than Paul Hoffman."

Having made this nomination, Mr. McCabe then voiced the one great obstacle to its fulfillment: "Since he (Hoffman) does not belong to any political machine," said McCabe, "it will probably be difficult for him to reach this highest position."

Hoffman was given a rising and rousing ovation after this unexpected introduction. He responded with an extemporaneous talk that was one of the most moving and inspirational speeches Washington has heard in a long time.

It was not a political speech or a candidate's speech. Hoffman had prepared a manuscript, but he did not follow it.

Letting himself go, he expressed his deep convictions he held, after two years' experience as administrator of the Marshall Plan.

Has Wanted to Return to Business

Before going into his formal remarks, Hoffman attempted to belittle the presidential nomination which Chairman McCabe had given him. In the 10 years that he has been coming to Washington and serving the government in one capacity or another, Mr. Hoffman has consistently maintained he had no political ambitions.

He has frequently said that he wishes only to return to private business. There have been many reports that he desired to resign as Marshall Plan administrator this fall. But after the demonstration he was given by CED colleagues—nearly 100 of the most progressive leaders and big men of American business—it will be difficult for him to avoid consideration as eligible for further government service and higher office.

Paul Hoffman is a Republican. Thomas B. McCabe is a Republican. Chairman McCabe did not identify the senator who had sized up Hoffman as a man of presidential timber, but speculation points to two men. They are Republican Sen. Ralph Flanders of Vermont and Democratic Sen. William Benton of Connecticut. Both were founders of CED. Senator Benton in particular is known to be a great Hoffman booster and was instrumental in getting him appointed as Marshall Plan administrator.

In thanking Chairman McCabe and his unnamed senator for their tribute, Mr. Hoffman said, "I am also quite well aware of what a couple of other senators think of me. And that keeps me properly humble. But to quote the popular song, 'Enjoy Yourselves—It's Later Than You Think.'"

"I left my company in the lurch to come to Washington and it zoomed. I left CED in the lurch and it zoomed. So whenever anyone tells me I am even remotely dispensable, I know better."

Sees Struggle for Survival

Turning serious for his main theme, Mr. Hoffman declared, "This struggle we're in is not World War II or World War III. It is a real struggle for the survival of western civilization. That sounds oratorical, but the things we do now will determine the kinds of lives we lead in the future.

"This struggle we're in is called a 'cold war.' It is not an apt phrase and I'd like to find a better one. But the kind of cold war that the Russians are fighting now has the same four fronts as the modern shooting war. They are the military, economic, political and informational fronts."

"This war is on now—not tomorrow. If we are willing to carry on that kind of war we can see Europe built up and not in ruins—and we can finish that war at a cost of less than $15,000,000,000."

Mr. Hoffman quoted former Army Secretary Gordon Gray to the effect that the total cost of World War II by the time the last pension is paid will be $1,300,000,000,000. The cost of a third war would be even greater.

"No one should say, 'Let's get on with the shooting,'" exclaimed Mr. Hoffman. "War is the ultimate stupidity—but if we carry on a smart four-front war, Russia will be contained."

"Russia is not a super-state," Mr. Hoffman declared in his final plea. "It is a sinking state. If we can carry on this war at this extremely low cost, we'll see freedom on the march again."

A DISCIPLINED SELF IS A SELF OF POWER

Last week we were concentrating our attention on the three steps to disciplined power: (1) Attention, (2) Meekness, (3) Power. We gain this third step only as we master the first two—there is no gaining of power by tricks, by mental legerdemain. Power comes by discipline, and by discipline alone.

An aviator told me that every moment while he is in the air he has to obey the laws of aviation—one moment's disobedience or carelessness and the machine would be wrecked. There can be no "moral holidays" while in the air; the obedience must be complete, or the mastery will not be complete. Only by attention, by meekness, does he gain power.

Begin to be hard with yourself. Paul says, "The soft shall not inherit the Kingdom of God." (I Corinthians 6:9, 10—"effeminate" is literally "soft.") Jesus stressed the same thought when He said, "He who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is not fit (literally, cannot fit into) the Kingdom of God." Those who are undisciplined, soft, looking back toward things given up, cannot fit into the Kingdom of God, which is a Kingdom of the disciplined.

"Severe with self,
Gentle with others,
Honest with all."

If all this discipline seems like a diminution of life instead of an augmentation of life, let me say that the control which discipline exerts on the self is the same kind of thwarting which is applied when a dam is thrown across a river—the even flow of the river is interrupted and restrained, but only in order that a powerhouse might be installed to create power and light. The disciplined you is not free to do as others do, but free to do what others cannot do—to be a contributive soul, full of light and power. Some will say, "I am free to do as I like," but you will say, "I am free to do as I ought." You are damned up on one level, but only in order to raise the level of life, so that you can function on a higher level.

My Lord and my God, I am putting my head into Thy Yoke—putting myself in bondage to Thee. But Thy yoke is easy, for I am made for it—Thy yoke is my yearning, for Thy laws are my life. I take Thy weights upon my shoulders free to find they are winds. Amen.

The Doctor Says—

Treatment of Trench Mouth May Take Time for Results

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.

Written for NEA Service

Trench mouth, or as it is commonly called Vincent's infection, is a condition particularly frequent during times of stress and strain, such as exists during wartime or when a person becomes weakened by disease or injury. There have been serious outbreaks in which large numbers of people have been attacked at the same time.

In the acute form pain in the mouth is the outstanding and universal symptom. In these burning of the mouth and tongue and excessive salivation are the rule and sometimes the saliva is actually bloody.

Also during an acute attack the breath has a foul odor and there is a metallic taste in the mouth. In children, in contrast to grown-ups, symptoms of sore throat, fever, pains in the muscles and joints, difficulty in swallowing and the appearance of severe illness are not uncommon.

In its typical form this inflammation of the mouth and throat is accompanied by ulcerations in the lining of the mouth and sometimes by the formation of an actual membrane which can be confused with the membrane of diphtheria. The involved areas are inflamed, tender, and bleed easily if pressed.

Two microbes are almost always found; a corkscrew-like one which is known as Vincent's spirillum and a germ shaped something like a dumbbell narrowed at both ends. The disease is contagious and can be spread from one person to another.

Among the circumstances which seem to lead towards trench mouth are erupting teeth or teeth in poor position, ill-fitting crowns or other dentures, poor hygiene of the mouth (that is failure to brush the teeth properly or often enough) and interference with nutrition of the gums.

Also involved are certain vitamin deficiencies, particularly deficiencies of vitamin C and B chronic malnutrition, certain blood diseases and several disturbances of the digestive tract.

Slow Cure

The disease is quite common even in times of peace. Its treatment is complicated and generally takes some time to show effects. Smoking and alcoholic beverages are strictly prohibited, highly spiced and seasoned foods also are avoided. In acute varieties, rest in bed is also necessary.

The diet has to be soft, and in some cases extra vitamins may have to be given. Often the best results are obtained by the co-operative efforts of dentist and physician who can direct a multiple attack.

Positive Attitude in Marriage Is Insurance Against Divorce

"Are you divorced-proof?" asks James F. Bender, director of the National Institute for Human Relations, in a recent magazine quiz.

"Divorce-proof" is as apt a term as any I've run across for the positive attitude that makes some marriages indestructible.

If you're "divorce-proof" you and your husband never, even in the middle of a quarrel, toss that ugly word into the verbal battle.

If you're "divorce-proof" you're mature enough to know that every marriage has its problems and that running away from them is no solution, but that they can all be solved or lived with if you face them out.

If you're "divorce-proof" you are as much concerned with the

The LONESOME BRIDE

By Grace Nies Fletcher

THE STORY: When Gloria Brown, bride of four months, leaves from Mrs. Benoni, her next-door neighbor, how to make apple pie, she lands squarely in the middle of a murder case. The Benoni is the Brown's dumbwaiter, killed by the knife Gloria had left behind at Mrs. Benoni's. Police are suspicious but permit Gloria and her husband to plan an outing at Jones' Beach.

VII

AS Gloria set out to buy food for the lunch on the beach, she saw evidences of this morning's debacle in the corridor, where a big burly policeman stood outside the Benoni's door and the janitor was bringing him a kitchen chair to sit on.

The janitor complained: "More blinking chaps all over the place, pretending to be what they ain't."

For some reason it made Gloria remember the new little janitor this morning. Could he be a cop too? As she got out of the elevator, she was surprised to find a new doorman on duty.

"Is Eric on vacation?" Gloria asked him.

"No, Ma'am. He's on duty mornings and the evenings." He was very tall, bigger than Eric even in the shoulders, with a keener, more friendly look about him as he walked with her out onto the sidewalk, saying impudently as he looked at her white net shopping bag, "If you're going to Fifth Avenue, I saw some delicious-looking pears at Tony's. You're Mrs. Brown, aren't you?"

"Mrs. Mitziades Brown," she told him proudly. "Thank you for telling me. My husband loves pears."

It was only later that she remembered she'd forgotten to ask his name. She pattered along, the high heels of her white sandals clicking against the pavement, planning her menu.

A loud shrill whistle, the kind small boys achieve with a finger in the mouth, made her jump.

"Hi, Handsome!" Sammy came rushing toward her across the avenue ignoring traffic with terrifying nonchalance.

"Next time," she shivered as he came up, grinning, "wait for the light so I won't have a heart attack. Why, Sammy! Are those for me? You shouldn't have spent your money."

HE was holding out to her in his small grimy hand a twist of once-white paper from which protruded the heads of two wilted, bedraggled carnations, one white and the other pink. "I didn't," he confessed. "There's a guy with a pushcart gives 'em away every night, when he can't sell 'em. They looked good this morning but—you're kinda late today, ain't you?"

Before she could answer, a noisy argument broke out on the sidewalk behind them and they turned to watch a girl in pink slacks very tight across the seat and wearing a sleazy blouse that hid very little trying to yank her arm away from the grip of a small man in a gray suit. Gloria recognized the man. It was the little janitor.

"Aw, it's only Sam!" Sammy said. "She's always getting coked up and making a fuss and the flatties haul her in."

Flatties. So the little janitor was a cop, Gloria thought. Could he by any chance be the plainclothes man the lieutenant had sent to follow her?

"Leggo my arm," the girl was screaming. She had hair golden on top and black at the roots.

The officer looked down the block at the policeman controlling traffic and then as if suddenly conscious of the gathering crowd and of Gloria and Sammy watching him, he dropped the girl's arm, walked off, scowling.

"You mean," Gloria asked Sammy, horrified, "she takes drugs?"

"It ain't nothin'," Sammy insisted. "She'll sleep it off." He was almost blubbering and suddenly Gloria knew why; he'd waited all day to give her his flowers and now his bubble of romance had burst.

She put her white-gloved hand up to touch the carnations, proudly as if they had been green orchids. "This is the very nicest corsage I ever had. I cannot tell you how much it means to me on this particular day to have a boy friend bring me flowers, Sammy," she said sincerely.

She'd called him her boy friend! The tide of joy running up burned his neck brick-red and to hide his embarrassment, he tore out into the street, yelling happily, "Pipers! Pipers!"

GLORIA, smiling, went on down the street to Tony's at the very end of the block. It was a nice-looking stand with orange, grapefruit, apples and other fruit arranged in designs on one side, with the vegetables on the other. Tony himself was a hunchback with his head twisted on one side, giving one the queer feeling he could see both before and behind at once, but his brown suit was pressed and his white apron clean.

"Pears?" Tony repeated her query. "Sure, I gotta da swell pear. Better ones inside. You come see, Mrs. Brown?"

How did he know her name? Without waiting for her to answer, he took her arm, propelling her inside his shop, behind the high fruit counter.

"Stop it!" Gloria gasped. "TW yell!"

She was pushed into the back room where a woman was standing.

"Why, Mrs. Benoni!" Gloria gasped.

"If you make too much noises, I come back," the hunchback warned. Scowling at Mrs. Benoni, he ordered: "You, Sadie, talk fast and get her out of here. If you were not my cousin's cousin . . . It is dangerous."

Mrs. Benoni looked terrible; she'd been crying, her usually carefully-kept hair was disheveled, and her eyes looked wild as she grabbed at Gloria's hand. "You got to help me!" she begged. "Benny, my husband, is in terrible danger and I have no one but you."

Man Acquitted In 'Mercy Killing'

DETROIT, May 23—(AP)—Eugene Braunsdorf, 52-year-old symphony musician, was acquitted by reason of insanity Monday in the "mercy killing" of his crippled daughter.

A jury of nine women and three men deliberated two hours before reaching a verdict.

Attempted Suicide
Braunsdorf killed spastic-crippled daughter, Virginia, 29, a year and a day ago, then turned the same pistol on himself in attempting suicide. He pleaded temporary insanity.

Braunsdorf told police after the shooting that he killed the hopelessly crippled daughter because he had lost his symphony job, had been forced to sell a florist business at a $3,000 loss, had undergone three operations and feared he would die, leaving the girl without means of obtaining hospitalization she had required all her life.

The father sobbed today as Assistant Prosecutor John Ricca told the jury that the girl was human "and had a right to live," and accused Braunsdorf of slaying her because she was a "burden on his pocketbook."

Spent Month In Hospital
Edward A. Barnard, defense lawyer, told the jury it was not called upon to decide whether mercy killings were right or wrong, but added that if ever one was justified "it was this one."

Barnard offered two doctors who said that in their opinion Braunsdorf was insane when he shot the daughter to death and then pumped four bullets into his own body. He recovered after months in a hospital.

The musician's wife, whom he married after the death of Virginia's mother in 1941, sat with him throughout the trial.

Election Board Chairman Quits

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 23—(AP)—Raymond A. Edlund resigned Monday as chairman of the Kansas City election board and Gov. Forrest Smith appointed John W. Oliver to succeed him.

At the same time the governor named Paul Van Osdel, Jr., to succeed Harold Marshall, who resigned last week.

Van Osdel and Oliver are both attorneys. Their terms will run until July 8, 1953, and they will take office as soon as they can be sworn in, perhaps tomorrow.

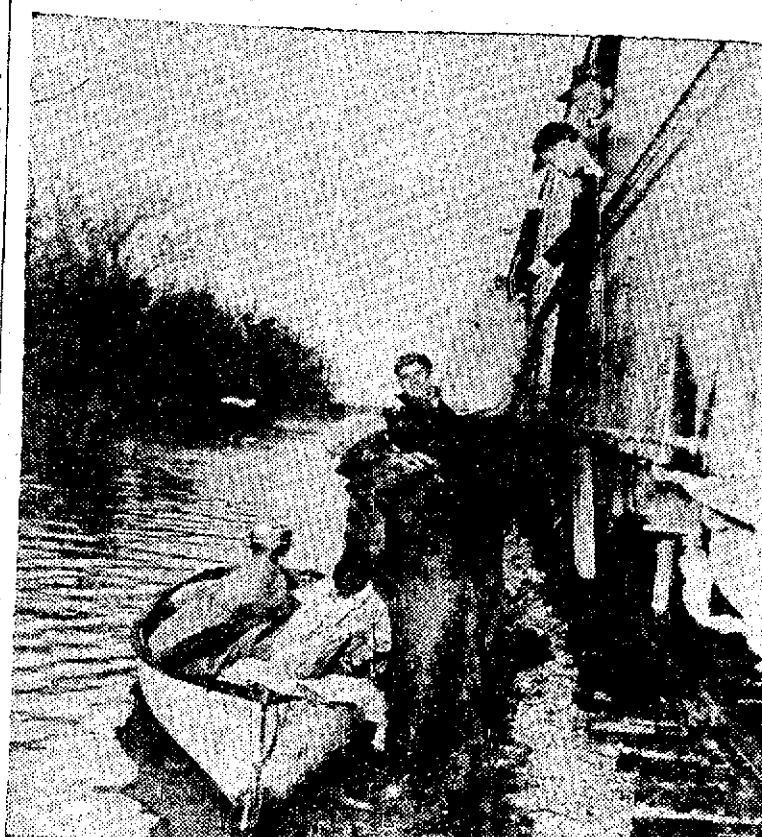

Serving with the new board members will be Henry A. Riederer, a Democrat, and Paul D. Walker, a Republican and brother of State Senator W. R. Walker of Carrollton.

Today's changes were the second time the governor has shaken up a Kansas City board since the April 5 slaying of Binaggio and his strong arm man, Charles Gargotta.

Earlier this month he appointed an entire new Kansas City police board when criticism of it mounted. Two of the members were ousted—Hampton S. Chambers and R. Robert Cohn.

'Big Earl' Shelton Is Wounded Again

FAIRFIELD, Ill., May 23—(AP)—"Big Earl" Shelton, member of the notorious Shelton gang, was shot in the right arm Monday as he and his nephew, "Little Earl" Shelton, were motoring through the Pond Creek neighborhood, 12 miles southeast of here.

Shelton was treated at a doctor's office here. His condition was described as not serious.

The young Shelton told officers the two were inspecting oil wells on some property owned by the elder Shelton when they were fired on from the roadside by unidentified assailants. The younger man was not injured.

It was in the same neighborhood that Carl Shelton, brother of "Big Earl," was shot and killed from ambush about two years ago. Another brother, Bernie, was later killed at Peoria.

A previous attempt on the life of "Big Earl" was made on the square at Fairfield about a year ago.

C. W. Trout, of Lebanon, Tenn., well-known manager of square dances and operator of several trucks, now joins in a few steps of the dancing, much to the amazement of friends who know how severe aches and pains of neuritis have made him almost an invalid for some time.

This blessed relief came to Mr. Trout as HADACOL helped overcome his deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. This relief came to him after these horrible pains had haunted him, making it possible for him to carry on his business activities only through sheer determination. He didn't let aches and pains kill his spirits, however.

Then, one of the musicians at his square dances brought him a large economy-size bottle of HADACOL.

Gave Him HADACOL

"I am tired of seeing you suffer with these aches and pains," said the musician. "I bought you this big bottle myself because I want to see you start getting well."

Here is Mr. Trout's own story: "I have suffered with aches and pains of neuritis for some time. I have tried dozens of preparations but have had little relief. My greatest pains have been in my knees and ankles and recently there have been pains in my wrists. One of the greatest horrors was to be unable to sleep at night. Since taking HADACOL, I have been able to sleep and it is wonderful to get rid of those terrible pains in the knees, ankles, and wrists. I have found in HADACOL the only relief that has come after years of search."

Two Senatorial Candidates On Same Platform

Thomas C. Hennings And Senator Allison Discuss Budget

NEW BLOOMFIELD, Mo., May 23—(P)—Two of Missouri's Democratic senatorial candidates took issue last night on the question of balancing the federal budget.

State Senator Emory W. Allison of Rolla, choice of President Truman and Gov. Forrest Smith for the nomination, said:

"There should be a realistic and determined effort by Congress to bring the budget into balance. Congress also should reduce taxes as speedily as possible."

"Neat Trick" To Cut Taxes

He conceded this is "a neat trick if you can do it." One way, he said, would be to lessen the danger of war by supporting a non-partisan foreign policy.

Former Congressman Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis took a different tack.

"I cannot promise to reduce taxes," he said, "when we are confronted with the possibility of extermination as a nation. x x We must do nothing to impair the effectiveness of the armed forces."

Hennings said he did not want the United States to "founder on the shoals of financial irresponsibility" and become a prey of Russia. But he said this is not the time to be concerned about balancing the budget and reducing taxes.

Mrs. Marjorie Bell Hinrichs, St. Louis cosmetics manufacturer and first woman candidate in Missouri for senator, also spoke at the rally sponsored by the Galloway Democratic committee.

An Ordinary Democrat

She said she was running as an ordinary Democrat—"I know your dreams and your heartbeats because I'm one of you," she said.

She advocated "equal pay for equal work, regardless of sex, creed or color, housing for low income groups and jobs for all."

Hennings did not refer directly in his prepared speech to the fact Allison was the choice of the President and the Governor. But he bore down on the right of voters to choose their own candidates. He said the days of the old convention system are gone, then added:

"No longer do small groups of selfish and predatory men perpetuate themselves and their friends in power in smoke filled rooms behind closed doors—no longer do the people make a choice from 'on high.'"

"Today in this blessed land of ours every voter casts a ballot as a sovereign citizen of our great republic, and the right to nominate now reposes, thank God, where it belongs—in all the people."

"This ballot is secret and the right of every Missourian to vote as he or she sees fit is beyond the power of any dictatorship or coercion, and is not subject to the whims or dictates of any man or group of men. x x x"

Not Mad At Anybody

Hennings insisted that "I am not mad at anybody." He said he would remain a Democrat no matter who wins.

Allison repeated in his prepared remarks what he said in his campaign opening speech at Rolla Saturday night—that the United States was led into the first world war "through the isolationist and obstructionist tactics of a handful of people in the United States Senate."

"We must not let this happen again," he said in pledging support to a nonpartisan American foreign policy.

He labeled both U. S. Senator Forrest C. Donnell and Senator James P. Kem as isolationists. Donnell is the Republican incumbent the Democrats hope to defeat in the November general election.

Allison also endorsed the fair deal farm program, soil conservation, rural electrification and other phases of the Truman program. He said national defenses must be kept strong to meet the threat of war but the budget must be balanced.
